

A PATH TO PEACE SERVICE LEARNING

Monday-Wednesday
June 20-22, 2011
The Blake School, Hopkins, MN

WORKSHOP

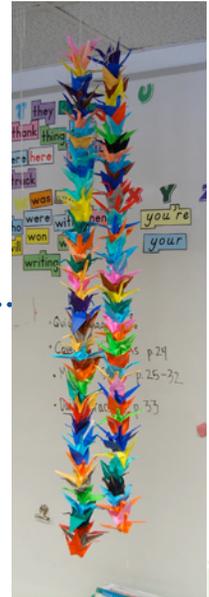

Join experienced service learning practitioners Nan Peterson and Lisa Sackreiter in a three-day workshop for public and private educators that includes service learning best practices and hands-on service experience.

National service expert Dr.s Jim and Pam Toole of Compass Institute will present new ideas about and research on service. Dr. Jenny Friedman of Doing Good Together will talk about the practice of building a culture of service in schools and individuals. And Kalita Bak, CEO of NYLC, will share service learning resources.

The workshop days will include visits to local service agencies, examples and discussion of authentic service learning, and time to reflect and rejuvenate in the Minneapolis area.

Learn how the Six Billion Paths to Peace initiative can inspire and engage students and adults in a life of service and enhance service learning in the classroom.

REGISTRATION

The registration fee includes the three-day workshop presentations and materials, snacks and lunch, daily transportation to and from hotel as well as transportation to the service and community sites.

Fee: $500 by June 1; $550 by June 15.

Reduced rate hotel accommodations ($109 per night) at Sheraton Minneapolis West. Call 1-800- 325-3535 for reservations.

Super-Shuttle service is available from Minneapolis-St. Paul International airport to the hotel for $24 each way. Call 1-800-blue-van to schedule a ride.

From 4 to 7pm on Monday and Tuesday there will be optional recreational activities and dinner. The optional recreation activity expenses are included in registration fee; the evening meal expense is not included.

TO SIGN UP: Go to www.blakeschool.org

QUESTIONS? Contact Nan at npeterson@blakeschool.org or Lisa at lsackreiter@blakeschool.org

“...the fruit of service is peace”
--Mother Theresa

110 Blake Road South
Hopkins, Mn 55343